Story Id	As a.....	I want to...
1	User	securely log into my account
2	User	recieve basic AI based stocks recommendations
3	User	see a simple overview of my investments and their performance
4	User	see a prediction to the asset that I have chosen
5	User	recieve notifications about my chosen stocks
6	User	my personal and financial data to be securely handled
7	User	to select 1 or more stocks
8	User	to see historical price data of selected stock over selected range
9	User	save displays/charts
10	User	to see some metric of confidence for the model's prediction
11	User	select window of time to analyze 12	User	select a list of stocks to save
13	User	to create a user profile
14	User	to sort my selection based on chosen attribute
15	User	have a graphical user interface

So that...
I can access my account securely
I can consider my potential investments
I can monitor my account
I can act accordingly (buy,sell,hold)
I can stay informed and can act in a timely manner
I can trust the app with sensitive information
I can get analysis of specific stocks of interest
I can get some information of a particular stock
I can reivew them at a later date
I can see if selected stock is a buy or sell (hold?)
I can tailor the prediction based on my preferences I don't have keep selecting my stocks of interest when I log in I can create my own login name and password
I can see easily rank my stocks based on name, probabilyt, price, etc...
I can use the application acceptance criteria user logs in after inputing saved password user presented with list stocks the ai reccomends application displays overview data (like stock name, price, profit,, etc.) apllication display users prediction value on application screen application sends notificaiton to user after stock prediction reaches some threshold application must adhere to some level of cybersecurity standard? application allows users to specify stocks to send to AI model application displays a plot of price data vs time for selected stock and range application displays and saves a chart to user's profile application shows a percentage representing accuracy along with prediction application provides user some method to select time window application saves list of stocks to the user profile application creates and stores unique username/password application provides a method for sorting displayed data website with features enabling user interface